

Nihiwatu Beach

Due to the richness of beauty of Nihiwatu Beach, tourists can do various fun activities on site. For instance, it is surfing! Thanks to the big waves. Tourists only need a good surfing board and some skills in order to enjoy such kind of sports. Somehow, the waves are suitable for everyone regardless of the experience. That means beginners can also have a good time there, as long as they don't do it alone. When it comes to the facility, tourists can rent the surfing board so they don't have to bring any.

The next allure of Nihiwatu Beach is none other than the nuance. This one is considered peaceful and suitable for relaxation! Not only the sea scenery is amazing, but it features soothing breezy wind too. No wonder, many people take advantage of the site to eradicate stresses and spending a peaceful vacation either with friends or families. In fact, it is even suitable for those who come alone or those who are looking for an inspiration during holidays.

Another allure of the beach is the presence of romantic sunset in the afternoon. It is true tourists should come at the right time if they want to witness such phenomenon. Here is the tip. They can stay at the nearby resort and wait for the right moment to approach the beach (especially during dusk). This way, they won't miss the opportunity to watch the sunset!

LOCATION

GALLERY

